

Reasons to Participate in Adopt a School

300 W. Cotton St. | Click here for map [1]

Why Should My Business Join Adopt A School Partnership of Longview?

- To improve the education of future employees and customers
- To enhance morale: employees gain a sense of teamwork by working together for “their school.”
- To demonstrate you care about both the present and future of Longview
- To increase understanding of the educational issues and needs of public schools
- To gain publicity for your organization: Schools will acknowledge partnerships in their newsletters and ask parents to patronize the businesses that support schools.
- To improve the work attitudes and habits of potential employees
- To provide an extra employee benefit – a chance for your workers to volunteer at school through work release time
- To allow you to make a difference in the lives of many children in a cost-effective way
- To offer you the opportunity to have fun that is also personally rewarding

Why Should My Congregation Join Adopt A School Partnership of Longview?

- To meet the needs of children
- To improve a child’s chances for success in life
- To touch the lives of children who may never come to your church with God’s love
- To provide an opportunity for your members to grow spiritually
- To demonstrate your concern for those in your neighborhood
- To make an investment in the future of Longview
- To increase your understanding of the educational issues and needs of the public schools
- To gain publicity for your congregation: Schools will acknowledge contributions in their newsletters
- To offer your members the opportunity to have fun that is also personally rewarding
